Scott Squillace is an estate planning attorney with over 23 years of experience.

He is admitted to practice law in Massachusetts, New York and Washington D.C. and has been admitted to the Bar in Paris, France as an Avocat. Scott began his practice career as a corporate and transactional attorney at Skadden, Arps where he was among the first attorneys to open its Paris and Moscow offices. During his time at Skadden he did significant private and public company corporate work helping businesses plan for financial growth.

Scott also has significant experience as an in-house corporate attorney, first as General Counsel for Levi Strauss & Co.'s European Division based in Brussels and later as the first General Counsel for Grand Circle Travel, a privately held Boston based travel company. He also served as European Counsel for Cabot Corporation, a NYSE public company, headquartered in Boston. With these positions he travelled and worked extensively in Asia, Latin America and Europe.

As the founder of Squillace & Associates, P.C. – a boutique law firm in Boston's historic Back Bay – Scott now specializes in Life, Estate and Business Planning matters for individuals and families. His focus includes planning needs for international clientele, corporate executives, small business owners, physicians and attorneys. He is a member of the Wealth Counsel and works in collaboration with other attorneys nationally. His practice also includes a focus on planning needs for same-sex couples and their families as well as individuals in the LGBT community. He also regularly counsels on Pet Trusts for his clients, having 2 chocolate labs and works regularly with non-profit organizations to help their efforts at Planned Giving.

Scott is an active participant in a number of community and professional organizations. He is a member of the Professional Advisory Committee at The Boston Foundation; the Board of Directors Stonewall Communities, Inc., a Boston based non-profit organization dedicated to housing and aging needs for the LGBT community. He has served on the Board of Directors and as past chair of the Fenway Community Health Center and the Association of Corporate Counsel, New England and European Chapters. He has served on the Boston Legal Foundation's, Massachusetts Advisory Council; the Editorial Board for New England In-House Magazine; Advisory Board Member, Boston University School of Management, Executive Education for Lawyers and as Treasurer and Board member for MassEquality, a coalition supporting Equal Marriage rights in Massachusetts.

Scott is now a member of Wealth Counsel, The Sunbridge Legacy Institute; Advisors in Philanthropy, the Boston Estate Planning Council, the Massachusetts Bar Association, Boston Bar Association and its Estate Planning section, the Massachusetts Lesbian & Gay Bar Association and Pride Planners.

He holds his bachelors degree from Fordham University in New York; has studied at the Sorbonne University in Paris and earned his J.D. from the Columbus School of Law at the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. He is married and resides in Charlestown, MA.
